

A call for a Demonstration in New York in support of The Commission of Inquiry on Human Rights in Eritrea

Eritreans in North America United in Support of the United Nations Commission of Inquiry would like to cordially announce a major Demonstration at the United Nations Headquarters in New York in support of the Commission of Inquiry on Human Rights in Eritrea.

History was made on, June 26, 2015, where demonstrations were held in Geneva, Switzerland; Tel Aviv, Israel; and multiple locations in Ethiopia; in support of the Commission of Inquiry on Human Rights in Eritrea. Let us use this momentum and once again show the world our support for the Commission of Inquiry on Human Rights in Eritrea.

In June 2015, the Commission of Inquiry released a 485-page report of egregious human rights violations in our country, Eritrea; with indictments for Crimes Against Humanity hovering over the tyrannical PFDJ regime led by Isaias Afewerki and senior PFDJ officials. It is paramount that we express our firm and unequivocal support of the COIE, in order to help bring into account the brutal dictatorship in Eritrea; and demand that the Eritrean PFDJ regime, led by Isaias Afewerki, be held accountable for their actions.

Therefore, we are kindly urging all Eritreans, friends of Eritrea, human rights activists, religious leaders, political and civic organizations, as well as all media platforms to support this crucial demonstration in support of the Commission of Inquiry on Human Rights in Eritrea to complete an undertaking of the highest urgency for the Eritrean people. Each one of us can make a difference, to ensure that the voices of the Eritrean people are heard. Thus let us all raise our voices together for Justice, Liberty and a Democratic Eritrea.

The demonstration will take place at the United Nations Headquarters,
East 47th Street, between 1st Ave & 2nd Ave, New York, New York City

Date of demonstration: October 29th starting 8:00AM
