

TORONTO AUGUST 17

August 17, 2015 on Monday 11:00am Eritrean Demonstration in Toronto - Canada, to support the report of the commission of inquiry on human right in Eritrea, and to protest against violations of civil rights and freedom of expression. The committee fact-finding that basic human rights in Eritrea described, as the "systematic and massive" including torture on a large scale and the national service is indefinite, which is the caused fleeing of thousands of Eritreans outside the country. The country is rule and control by the tyrant Isaias Afaewrki for more than twenty years.